

I urge the FCC not to promulgate the changes being considered. Concentrated ownership of media outlets threatens the dissemination of diverse opinions, and may ultimately threaten our history of free press.